

4th Annual Maryland CASA Conference

Saturday, March 20, 2010

8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

For volunteers, staff and board members of CASA programs affiliated with Maryland CASA Association only

LOCATION: Judiciary Education & Conference Center, 2011 Commerce Park Drive, Annapolis, MD 21401

Keynote Speaker: Scott Krugman, MD, MS Chairman, Department of Pediatrics, Franklin Square Hospital Center

Scott Krugman, MD, MS is Chairman, Department of Pediatrics at Franklin Square Hospital Center. Dr. Krugman graduated from Dartmouth Medical School and completed his residency at Johns Hopkins Children's Center. After residency he joined the pediatric faculty at Franklin Square Hospital Center and became chairman of the department in 2002. Dr. Krugman completed a master's degree in epidemiology in 2005. He is a Clinical Professor of Pediatrics and Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. He founded Franklin Square's Child Protection Team in 2000 with the aid of a VOCA grant which evaluates over 250 children at the hospital each year. In 2002, a Maryland Children's Trust Fund grant helped start the "Prevention is the Best Medicine" program to work on child abuse prevention efforts in eastern Baltimore County. Dr. Krugman is also a member of the Child Abuse Medical Providers (CHAMP) faculty, the Baltimore County Child Fatality Review Team, the Baltimore County Child Protection Review Panel, the State Council on Child Abuse and Neglect, the board of The Family Tree, and is past-chair of the Child Maltreatment Committee of the Maryland Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.
