Greg Corneille, CRPC Joins Maryland CASA Board

TOWSON, Md. (Jan. 26, 2016) – Maryland CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Association has appointed Greg Corneille, CRPC to a two-year term on its board of directors.

“The thought of abused or neglected children being taken through the court systems and having to make decisions – potentially life altering decisions – without an adult advocate speaking up for their best interests motivated me to join the Maryland CASA board,” said Corneille.

Corneille is the president of Axcel Capital Management, LLC; a firm based in Pasadena, Md. that specializes in strategic investment management solutions and financial planning. With over 10 years of industry experience, he has advised clients on individual and business retirement planning solutions, equity investments, insurance needs, and estate and tax planning considerations. Prior to his financial services career, he served as a Military Intelligence Officer in the U.S. Army.

“As Maryland CASA works to expand our donor base in an increasingly competitive environment, Mr. Corneille’s background in business and finance will be invaluable. His experience and expertise will be important to helping us continue to grow and enabling us to give a voice to even more children in need,” said Lisa Lunghofer, Maryland CASA’s Board President.

“I hope that through my service [on the board] I can help expand the impact of CASA programs in Maryland, and ultimately impact the lives of abused and neglected children,” said Corneille.

A Hampton University graduate, Corneille holds the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC) designation from the University for Financial Planning. In addition to his newfound dedication to Maryland’s most vulnerable children, Corneille is also a member of the Northern Anne Arundel County Chamber of Commerce. He presently resides in Owings Mills, Md.

Those interested in learning more about becoming a member of Maryland CASA’s Board of Directors are urged to contact Ed Kilcullen, State Director, at Ed@marylandcasa.org or 410-828-6761.
