Baltimore Lieutenant Joins Nonprofit Board to Aid Abused, Neglected Children

BALTIMORE, Md. (July 28, 2016) – Maryland CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Association has appointed Lieutenant S. Lansey-Delgado to a two-year term on its board of directors.

“I joined [the board] because I want to be a strong voice and action member for those too often left without a voice, and arms too little to reach out and fight for themselves,” said Lansey Delgado.

A Baltimore native, she serves as Lieutenant for The Baltimore Police Department, Office of Administrative Hearings where she handles all of the cases that have been investigated and sustained on agency members through internal affairs complaints or Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) issues.

Lansey-Delgado earned her Masters of Science in Criminal Justice with a specialization in Policing from the University of Baltimore, and her Bachelor of Arts in Criminology and Social Deviance from the College of Notre Dame.

“I consider myself to be a powerful leader and organizer, and I look forward to assisting [Maryland] CASA with its continued growth, fundraising, and development so that CASA can become a household known organization and name.”

Aside from CASA, Lansey-Delgado is involved with Higher Achievement, a program under the Baltimore City school system, the Baltimore Humane Society, and the Baltimore Child Abuse Center where she provides administrative support.

Those interested in joining Lansey-Delgado by serving on the board are urged to contact Ed Kilcullen, State Director for an application at Ed@marylandcasa.org or 410-828-6761.

About Maryland CASA Association

Maryland CASA Association is a private, non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to ensuring the rights of all victims of child abuse and neglect to grow up in safe, permanent homes. This mission is carried out in partnership with the state’s 15 Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) programs, which provide trained volunteer advocates to speak up for the best interests of children.
